

Call for Applications for FMEC Student and Resident Board Positions

In 2023, the FMEC Board of Trustees expanded from 15 to 17 members to add a medical student and a resident. The FMEC is seeking a medical student and a resident to join the FMEC Board in late 2025, to shadow medical student member Hannah Clarke and resident member Dr. Taylor Rider through September 2026 and then assume official terms for 2026-2027.

Responsibilities

Duties of the FMEC Board members, including the student and resident positions, include the following:

- Serve from October 2025 through September 2027
- Attend 1-hour virtual, evening meetings every other month, and two in-person meetings each year (February and September)
- Attend and support the FMEC Annual Meeting each fall
- Advise on FMEC strategy and future activity
- Serve on special groups as needed (oversight subcommittees, Host Committee, topical committees, etc.)

Supports

If travel support is not provided by the student's or resident's institution, the FMEC will fund their travel to attend both in-person meetings noted above during their term. This will include travel (air, train, mileage), hotel for as many nights is required to participate in the meeting, meals and incidentals.

Requirements

Candidates must be actively enrolled in either a medical school or a family medicine residency training program in the FMEC region (14 states +DC – see the list on the FMEC website) or at an international medical school which has an active FMEC Partnership (see FMEC Partner list).

How to Apply

Applicants should submit:

- a short letter of application that states you will fulfill the commitment
- your CV
- a short, recorded video answering the question "Why do you want to serve on the FMEC Board of Trustees?"
- a simple letter from your dean or program director stating that you are in good standing in your school or program and that you will be supported to fulfill the requirements of Board service
- the contact information for a faculty member or other program leader who may be asked for a reference

When ready, please visit the FMEC Board of Trustees page at <https://www.fmec.net/fmec-board-of-trustees> for the link to submit your application.

When to Apply

The deadline for applications is October 13, 2025. Applicants will be notified of their status by the end of October 2025.
