

Call for Applications – FMEC Board of Trustees

Submit by June 3, 2026

Call for Applications for Member-At-Large Position, FMEC Board of Trustees

The FMEC Board of Trustees is seeking applicants for Member-at-Large positions on the Board! We have at least 3 open positions in 2026. Please read below and submit your application no later than June 3, 2026, if you are interested.

Responsibilities and Supports

Duties of the FMEC Board members include the following:

- Advise on FMEC strategy and future activity;
 - Serve on special groups as needed (oversight subcommittees, Host Committee, topical committees, etc.);
 - Support the FMEC's success by identifying and recruiting other volunteers and experts; by representing the FMEC to other state, regional and national groups; and by providing or leveraging financial support (personal and/or institutional donations and sponsorships. A personal donation at any amount which is comfortable for you is expected); and
 - Attend and participate in scheduled meetings (see below), including attending the FMEC Annual Meeting each fall.
- The FMEC Board of Trustees holds 1-hour virtual meetings every other month, typically in the evening, and two in-person meetings each year. The in-person meetings include a 3-day meeting in February in the location of that year's Annual Meeting, and a 4-hour meeting on the Thursday before the fall Annual Meeting. Other than the hotel room and most meals at the February meeting, all travel expenses are the responsibility of the Board member or their institution. For more information on Board service, review FMEC Board Member Duties 2026.

Interested in Learning More?

Members of the FMEC Board will hold a short informational session about serving on the Board. Bring your questions or just hear about the time commitment, benefits, challenges and more.

Tuesday, May 19, 2026

12:30pm-1pm Eastern

Use this link to register and receive a Zoom link or just use this link on May 19 to join the meeting:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/85336667467>.

Who Should Apply?

Candidates must be in the FMEC region (14 states +DC – see the list on the FMEC website). FMEC membership (either individual membership, or membership via an FMEC Partner organization – see the FMEC Partner list) is encouraged. Active participation in the FMEC via speaking at or helping plan the Annual Meeting, participating in a learning collaborative, or other means will contribute to a strong application.

Membership on the FMEC Board of Trustees is open to any family medicine practitioner, educator or advocate; it is not limited to physicians. Individuals can be at any point in their career, and previous "board-level" experience is not necessary.

Per the FMEC bylaws, the FMEC Executive Committee (President, President-elect, Treasurer-Secretary, and Immediate Past President) serve as the Nominations Committee. They will review applications and submit a recommendation to the full Board for approval.

Future Vacancies

FMEC will happily accept applications at any time and consider them for future vacancies. If you are not invited to join the Board in 2026, we will be happy to reconsider your application if you remain interested.

How to Apply

Applicants must submit the following:

- your CV
- a short letter of application which states you will fulfill the commitment; notes your previous/current involvement with the FMEC; and answers the question "Why do you want to serve on the FMEC Board of Trustees?"
- the contact information for a colleague who may be asked for a reference, should the Nominating Committee reach out to them

Your application may be written or sent as a short (under 2 minutes) recorded video using your phone or Zoom. If too large to email, please upload and send a link.

Please email the items above to Scott Allen at scott.allen@fmec.net.

For Questions: If you or your program leadership have any questions, please contact Scott G. Allen, MS, CEO of the FMEC, at scott.allen@fmec.net or 773-330-4331.
